GWU Student Conduct Process Outline

Student Rights and Responsibilities (SRR) and those who resolve conduct cases evaluate each case individually. This chart provides a summary of the ways in which cases are typically processed under the Code of Student Conduct. We encourage students to read the Code in its entirety. In the event this guide is inconsistent or in conflict with the Code, the Code will apply.

Effective 7/1/2021, last updated 5/2021

Conflict management options.

Incident report or complaint received. A preliminary investigation may occur to clarify and inform the review of the report.

No formal conduct follow-up

Conduct charges filed. Additional investigation may continue to occur.

INTERIM ACTION
If the respondent poses a threat, the university may temporarily remove them or limit their access while the case proceeds.

STUDENT CONDUCT CONFERENCE
• Occurs if outcome is not likely to include removal from housing, suspension, or expulsion
• Consists of an informal meeting between the respondent and a university administrator or University Hearing Board member.

STUDENT CONDUCT PANEL
• Occurs if the outcome could reasonably include removal from housing, suspension, or expulsion.
• Consist of 3-5 students, a faculty member or administrator (absence of faculty member/administrator does not prevent a hearing).

STUDENT CONDUCT AGREEMENT
• An option for respondents who accept an in violation finding for all charges and agree to specific sanctions.
• Includes waiving the right to appeal and concludes the process.

PANEL LEVEL CONFERENCE
• Resolves the case in a conference format.
• Maintains the full range of available sanctions.

OUTCOMES

IN VIOLATION (some or all charges)
• The respondent will receive an outcome.

NOT IN VIOLATION (all charges)
• Respondent will receive an outcome.

Basic rights of respondents in university student conduct proceedings
• Notice of charges and date of conduct proceeding, reasonable access to case file at least three days before proceeding; question and respond to information to be used to make decision in a case; right to witnesses; right not to be sanctioned unless the hearing body finds a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent is in violation; right to appeal decisions.
• An advisor may be present (not legal representation).

For cases involving a complainant, the process will vary to incorporate the options relevant to that party.

APPEALS
• Submitted in writing within 5 business days after receipt of outcome letter.
• Grounds for appeal: material deviation from procedures, new and relevant information that was unavailable; sanction was inappropriate or disproportionate to the prohibited conduct.
• If the Assoc. Dean of Students finds that grounds are presented, the appeal will be forwarded to the Chair of the Appeals Board. The final decision is made by a Panel selected by Chair of Appeals Board.
